The Gathering Place for the Utility Industry

Held every two years, The Utility Expo is the #1 utility and construction trade show in North America, bringing together more than 21,000 industry professionals and over 900 industry-leading manufacturers over 1.5 million square feet of exhibit space.

As one of the largest trade shows in the U.S., The Utility Expo's popularity is attributed to equipment test drives, interactive product demonstrations, industry-leading education, and has been awarded as the "Gold 100" Trade Show, winning top honors as the largest biennial exhibition.

Exhibiting at The Utility Expo is the best way to connect with prospects, and it returns to the Kentucky Exposition Center October 7-9, 2025, with more products, demos, and opportunities than ever..
